

little veterinarian school®

FROM THE LIBRARY OF little medical school®

What is in the Veterinarian's Office

1. Make important measurements on a dog
2. See and complete a head to tail assessment and exam on a dog

The ABCs of Dog Care

1. Talk about the importance of proper nutrition and eating proper foods in keeping a dog healthy and growing properly
2. Know how to make fun treats at home for your dog
3. Know how much water your dog needs a day and make a water bowl

Laceration

1. Discuss lacerations
2. Know what to do when a dog gets hurt
3. Discuss how to care for stitches

Sick of Ticks!

1. Know about ticks and the importance of checking your dog for ticks.
2. Remove ticks from your dog using proper techniques.
3. Practice ways to give your dog his tick medication.

Immunizations

1. Discuss how antibodies recognize and kill germs that enter the body
2. See how vaccines can protect the body from getting sick
3. Understand the importance of giving your dog vaccinations

Let's Go to the Vet's Office!

1. Describe some important members of the team at a veterinary office.

2. Understand how these people work with veterinarians to help the patients and owners.
3. Describe some things that pet owners can do to help make the visit go as smoothly as possible for their pet.

Radiology

1. Discuss what radiographs are.
2. Understand what the different shades of light and dark mean on a radiograph.
3. Describe how a veterinary team would take a radiograph.

Dog Digestion

1. Name, explain and be able to label the organs of digestion.
2. Understand how food moves normally through the dog digestive tract.
3. Describe what happens when a foreign body gets stuck in the digestive tract.

Dog Body Language

1. Know some common dog body postures and what they could be saying about how the pet is feeling.
2. List 3 signs of that a dog needs more space. List some signals that a dog is relaxed.
3. List 3 situations that might make a dog not want to be touched or approached.

Medical Fun and Graduation!

1. Understand the types of jobs available to Veterinarians
2. Design their own Veterinarian clinic
3. Graduate from Little Veterinarian School

Study Breaks: Graduation Invitation!, Animal Yoga, Animal Pictionary, Getting Ready for Graduation